SISTERS OF HOLY CROSS ~ FAREWELL

The Sisters of Holy Cross have recently announced that they will be relocating from our parish, effective July 17. This decision is prompted by the dwindling number of religious sisters who are available to assume the ministries that the sisters depend on, especially for their health and well being. Sister Lorraine Choiniere, the animator of our convent here, will become co-animator of St. George Manor and the Sisters' Infirmary on Island Pond Rd., in Manchester; Sister Evelyn Boucher will move to retirement at the Manor; Sister Anne Marie St. Pierre (after 25 faithful years at Infant Jesus Convent) will move to a new Manchester residence, and work with the children in the Holy Cross pre-school; and Sister Catherine Poirier will be transitioning to a new ministry in the Tampa Florida area. While the Sisters of Holy Cross will be greatly missed, we want them to know that our love and concern goes with them as they continue their journey in the years ahead. To better express our appreciation, our parish community is cordially invited to a Sunday reception at Infant Jesus Church, following the 10:30 Mass, on August 13. More details will follow!

CORPUS CHRISTI SEEKING FANS

Fans (used or new) are much needed by the clients of Corpus Christi Food Pantry and Assistance. Most of our clients live in poorly ventilated and hot apartments and could very much use your help.
