Movie for January

"On Wings of Eagles" (2017)

Two SHOWINGS: Monday, January 28 ~ 9:15 AM & 7:00 PM ~ SJE Church Hall

The continuing true story of Eric Liddell's glorious life after winning Olympic gold in the 1924 Paris Olympics. Liddell returns to China, where he was born to missionary parents, modestly avoiding celebrity in order to teach local schoolchildren. In 1937, the Japanese invade China at the outset of WWII. Liddell and friend Xu Niu, a street smart resistance fighter, recognize the increasing danger, so Liddell sends his wife, Florence and their two daughters to safety in Canada. Duty-bound, Liddell stays to minister to the civilian victims. Liddell and other foreign nationals are taken as prisoners and placed in one of the many Japanese internment camps where they are forced to endure for two years. Before the Japanese surrender, Liddell succumbs to a brain tumor. Yet his message of hope became immortal.

RECOGNITION FOR OUR SAFE ENVIRONMENT COORDINATOR

Each month the Diocesan Safe Environment Office highlights a Safe Environment Coordinator who demonstrates a strong commitment and dedication to keeping our children safe. This month they recognize Ed Duchesne, who has served as the volunteer Safe Environment Coordinator at our parish since 2013. Ed is retired from a career in business but has found many volunteer activities to keep him busy. In addition to his safe environment duties here at Saint John XXIII Parish, Ed serves as a lector and choir member and is a 4th degree Knight of Columbus. He also uses his talents to assist elderly and low-income citizens with tax preparation and is active in town government. Ed is a friendly and dedicated volunteer who works closely with parishioners to ensure that they complete our diocesan safe environment requirements.

Ed's wife Theresa was called home to our Lord earlier this month. Please keep Theresa and their family in your prayers.
