STEWARDSHIP REPORT

BABY SHOWER FOR JESUS

For many years, baby items have been collected to assist the ministry of Real Options (formerly Care Net Pregnancy Center). This year, there is a great need for diapers (newborn and sizes 2 & 3), baby wipes, sleep sacks, baby towels, diaper bags, girl's & boy's clothes (newborn to 3 months) and maternity clothes. Used baby and maternity clothes are fine; they only ask that they be clean and in good condition. New infant car seats would be greatly appreciated. Knitted and crocheted items are treasured for their personal touch! If you can help, please place your donation in or near the cradle on the tabernacle side of the sanctuary at Infant Jesus Church, from Nov. 28 to Sunday, Dec. 13.

RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE

The Knights of Colubus Council #5162 will be hosting a Red Cross Blood Drive on Saturday, December 5th at St. Kathryn Church Hall, Dracut Road, Hudson. Donation hours will be 9AM to 2 PM. The Red Cross is taking special precautions during the COVID-19 crisis to ensure the safety of donors and staff. You can sign up on line at www.rcblood.org/appt

REFLECTIONS FOR CHRIST THE KING

Kings are more than cards in a deck or pieces on a chessboard. We know them as the linchpins for many an historical account and their lives intersect with those of many revered saints. As time passed, they gradually changed from being staunch persecutors of Christianity to royal purveyors of it.

While we proudly live in a democratic republic, many of us remain fascinated by anyone who wears the crown in other nations. Here at home, the title can denote a chief company executive or a country's heroic founder; a master spirit, or an otherwise noteworthy person, at least of superior importance.

Recall when Pontius Pilate asked Jesus, amid the tension of their Good Friday encounter, whether or not He was a king. Jesus answered with another question: "Is this your opinion or have others told you of Me?" This followed by a reassurance to the nervous procurator: "My kingdom is not here."

So we know He is a king by His own strong admission. As we believe Jesus unconditionally, it is easy for us to add to today's feast its complete title for Christ, namely "King of the Universe." A corollary of that last has to be that His coming judgment of us all on the Last Day is momentous. We should be keenly aware of how to get ready.

Like so many aspects of our relationship with God, that readiness is simple: habitual practice of good deeds done to our neighbor. And this presumably from a pure and loving heart. That's it. No need to make readiness more complex. Look no further.

As we gather this week around the family table for our annual American Thanksgiving Day, there are myriad reasons to think and thank before we eat. One of the major ones is to remind ourselves that Jesus our Lord, our King, is loyal to, and loving of us, His sisters and brothers. All He asks is our return of the favor.

Gilbert Keith Chesterton, the great British writer, philosopher and lay theologian once wrote this: "I would maintain that thanks are the highest form of thought; and that gratitude is happiness doubled by wonder."
