REFLECTION - 30TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

As I read this weekend's gospel and the story Jesus tells, I somehow thought about a certain queen. No, not the nonagenarian Elizabeth II, nor any other earthbound royal lady. I'm speaking of that unnamed villainous person who hated Snow White. You remember her and her obsession over beauty. She had a daily consult with a so-called "Magic Mirror." She was okay whenever that mirror ranked her beauty the highest. But she became an angry monster when the mirror ranked her in second place. Then she plotted murder of the beautiful Snow White.

As kids watching the Disney film about it, we weren't capable of much psychological analysis. We just knew she was a bad lady. But now, in the context of Jesus' parable, I know we see that queen as a model of that self-righteousness Jesus despised and warns us about.

In the story, we recognize that queen's counterpart standing right there up front in the temple. Doesn't he come across as a despicable man? Bragging out loud to God about himself, with a sneer on his face as he turned to look at that humble tax collector behind him! In his mind, that man in the back might as well be a substitute for "the rest of humanity!"

Of course, we all might suddenly be conscious of a small but powerful needle jabbing our consciences. That's what most of Our Lord's parables do to us when we hear them again some 2,000 plus years later. Why? Because there's a bit of that Pharisee up there in all of us. This happens especially when we learn, for example, of some politician's past behavior, or that of a formerly respected priest. Or even in one of our neighbor's faults made public. Oh, we're clever and sophisticated enough to preclude a sneer in public. But in private, our imaginary court has reached an infallible, irrefutable verdict: "Guilty!" (Emphasis intended.)

But just then comes to mind that beautifully humble tax collector back there in the rear of the room. I imagine Our Lord's sacred voice becoming a little softer and with a sympathetic tenor as He says, "But the tax collector stood off..." Why? Because of Our Lord's love for the imaginary man. That's why the tax collector becomes our model. In fact, I would endorse what the man prays as a good Act of Contrition in the confessional that any priest would accept: "O God, be merciful to me, a sinner."

So here we are on this Mission Sunday 2022, thinking of such things. Our Church urges us also to think about and pray for, and even dedicate some funding to help those dedicated souls who labor to bring the Good News to all parts of the planet.

But there is another meaning today for us. We have a Mission too. It's to spread that same wonderful Word. Don't be afraid, because one of the most effective ways we can become evangelists is by simply telling our story; our life's interaction with God. To do it humbly will have an impact all its own. For sure, there is no "Magic Mirror" to consult about our success. Only the attentive faces of our listeners as Faith dawns in them from our enthusiastic Faith in Christ, humbly told with our weakness included.

A wise and perceptive man once said this: "Enthusiasm is nothing but Faith with a tin can tied to its tail."

CORPUS CHRISTI NOTES

Corpus Christi strives to help all families. Families with infants and very young children can struggle to make ends meet, especially when they are trying to purchase necessary items such as diapers, wipes and other costly baby items. The food pantry can help alleviate some of the expense by providing diapers and wipes for the family. Occasionally, the food pantry may have formula or baby food. With your support, the food pantry can make these items available to clients.

CORPUS CHRISTI HELP WANTED

Corpus Christi is looking for a few men to join our team of dedicated volunteers who pick up food from Hannaford on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday mornings. This involves loading the truck with produce, bakery items and meat. The food is brought back to the food pantry and unloaded. This will take approximately 1-1/2 to 2 hours each day. If you can help one or more days, please call Maryellen at 603-882-6372.
